

Inavale Farm Summer Riding Classes

Inavale Farm will be offering five day riding sessions for kids this summer, geared toward beginning and intermediate riders. Lessons will be Monday through Friday from 9:00 am to 12:00, which gives plenty of time for instruction in grooming, tacking up, horse care, and arena and trail riding. These sessions are designed to provide lots of time in the saddle to help kids improve their riding skills and have fun with horses. Our horses are gentle, well trained, and experienced.

Level one classes are for riders aged 7 and older, who have a little or no horse experience. The level two class is offered for those riders currently in lessons who would like a little more intensive riding and horse care time. Riders signing up for the level 2 class should be able to canter.

Classes offered:

Level One:

July 5 - 9

August 9 - 13

Level Two:

July 26 - 30

These lessons will be small groups of approximately six riders in western or English saddles.

Cost will be $160 per rider, which is nearly a 50%

Savings over our regular hourly lesson rates.

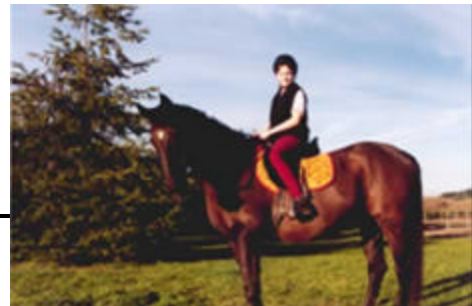

To enroll in one of these classes please send a 50% ($80) deposit with the form below. This is a nonrefundable deposit, unless your spot can be filled from a waiting list. The remaining 50% can be paid on the first day of class.

If these summer sessions do not work with your schedule, we are also taking new students for private and semi-private lessons this summer.

If you have not been to Inavale Farm, you are welcome to come out and watch a lesson or meet the horses. Please call with questions you have, if you need help deciding which class is right, or if you would like to register for one of our sessions.

Thank you for your interest,
