

Inavale Farm Invites you to:

EVENTING CAMP May 29,30,31, 2010

Levels: Intro (18" jumps) through Preliminary (3'7")

The facility: Inavale Farm is a 170 acre eventing facility with maintained trails, complete cross country courses, indoor arena, and an outside jumping arena, with lots of room for trail riding and galloping.

The lesson schedule: Two 1 ½ hour group lessons each day (Saturday and Sunday) covering all phases of eventing: dressage, show jumping, cross country. Monday morning group sessions available in either cross country or show jumping, scheduled over the weekend based on riders' requests. Limit 4 riders per mounted lesson.

The accommodations: Unimproved camping, or see website for motel suggestions. No meals are provided. Horses can stay in outside corrals (uncovered) or covered portable stalls. Straw bedding is available. Water is available for horses. When not riding in a lesson, you are free to hack around the property.

The instructors: Devin Robel has 27 years of riding experience, and 16 years of competing in eventing. She manages and trains out of her own Blue Rider Farm in Eugene. Kelsey Kristosik has been teaching at Inavale Farm for five years and has ridden many different disciplines, but eventing remains her passion. Both Devin and Kelsey are actively competing in eventing, and have ridden to the intermediate and FEI * level on self-trained horses.

Refund policy: Full refund: any time before 30 days prior to first day of camp, or if your spot can be filled from a waiting list.
$100 refund: cancellation received between 29 and 14 days prior to first day.
$50 refund: cancellation received between 13 days and 7 days prior to first day.
No refund: cancellation received 6 or less days prior to first day.

Questions: Kelsey (541)929-5706 #1, or Caroline (541)929-5706 #2 or cell (541)231-5889. See website at www.inavalefarm.com for more information about the farm.

Tentative schedule will be emailed on Tuesday prior to camp.
